Police provide critical advice to Marsden students

MARSDEN High School students discuss crime prevention with Senior Constable Debbie Chrystal, Highway Patrol Senior Constable Chris Rollo and Ryde LAC Crime Manager Inspector Glyn Baker at a crime prevention seminar yesterday at the school. The seminar saw police give talks on reporting crime, internet and email safety as well as road safety. Senior Constable Chrystal urged parents and students to learn about the laws that cover email and internet safety and strongly recommended the website www.esafety.gov.au MORE NEXT WEEK.
